

Creation Care: Theology, Spirituality and Mission

Why, as Christians, do we care about creation?

How do we ground creation care in our spiritual life?

And how does creation care fit as part of our churches' wider mission?

This event includes:

- Short presentations of different theological perspectives on creation care ...
- An introduction (Oxford) or practical workshops (Reading) exploring ways of prayer, pilgrimage and sabbath that can enrich & deepen our love of God and care for God's creation
- Time to work together, using new research on climate communication, on a key question: how do we communicate clearly the Christian message on climate? How do we show that it's relevant to our churches' wider mission?

Two options (one half-day, one full day)

Saturday, 29 April 2017

10:00 am to 1:00 pm

St Michael at the Northgate

Parish Room,

Cornmarket, Oxford OX1 3EY-

Saturday, 6 May 2017

10:00 am to 4:00 pm

(full day version)

St Laurence, Reading

RG1 1DA

Free - all welcome. Registration essential.

To register, go to www.earthingfaith.org or www.ccow.org.uk

or ring 01235 851763

Wessex Synod of the United
Reformed Church

